To The Knights Of Columbus Council 12021:

I have had the pleasure of teaching [REDACTED] for the past year, and I am not using the word pleasure frivolously. Over the past year, I have watched [REDACTED] dedicate herself to her studies, assume various leadership roles in the school, and grow in her Catholic faith. Her responsibility and industriousness has helped her achieve A Honor Roll every quarter this year. [REDACTED] is a member of the Student Council, an ambassador for the school, and a member of the National Junior Honors Society. She has been volunteering her recess time for the past couple of months to work on a peace pole for NJHS. [REDACTED] also sings in both the school and parish choirs every week, and earlier this month, after much preparation and prayer, [REDACTED] was confirmed in her Catholic Faith.

Her family is very supportive of her faith and her academics. I have seen them come out to support her countless times, and they always encourage her in her passions and questions. They consistently attend Mass on Sundays, and they encourage [REDACTED] to grow in virtue.

[REDACTED] is industrious, responsible, and humble, and she would absolutely represent the Knights of Columbus scholarship well.

Yours In Christ,

Mallory McKee
