3. OPENING CONTINUED

The Grand Knight, Mark Goedecke, urged all members to use their discretion driving to meetings in poor weather.

4. MINUTES

Minutes from the previous meeting of the Council held on January 9, 2014 were read. Upon motion made and seconded, they were unanimously approved.

5. GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

The Grand Knight, Mark Goedecke, said that we would be dispensing with most reports tonight, and that we would be watching a pro-life video called "Blood Money" during the meeting to enable members to earn their Pro-Life wings. He reported that we have a new insurance agent, Scott Shaw, 903-267-1778, Scott.Shaw@KofC.org, who has three councils that meet on the same night, so he will attend our meetings when he can. We had a very successful corporate communion and Bingo on January 25th. Rick Donnelly sent out an e-mail about the upcoming men's ACTS Retreat; the Grand Knight urged everyone to attend, as it is of great benefit to one's personal relationship with God. The women's ACTS Retreat is next weekend; they will leave on the 13th and come back on the 16th. There are Special Olympics events going on in Frisco on the 14th, several more volunteers are needed. Tomorrow night at 7:00 p.m. in the church is Al Laska's rosary; the family has requested that the Knights lead a scriptural rosary. Al was always at our Council events; we owe it to the family to show our support. The funeral is at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday morning. Wear your Knights shirt or badge to let people know you are with the Knights.

Joe Semler noted that we owe Len Jankowiak a special thank you for supplying a new flag to the school, which was put up on Monday.

6. RECRUITING REPORT

Gordon Adams presented a candidate: Kevin Hoppman, son of Phil Hoppman. Gordon recommended him highly. The Grand Knight also recommended him, and asked if anyone was opposed. He was approved unanimously by the council. Gordon also noted there is a First Degree on the 26th at St. Marks, and one on the 27th at St. Joseph. A major degree will be held on March 16th at St. Joseph's, and he and the Grand Knight agreed to encourage all our first degree members to attend.

7. GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT CONTINUED

The Council then watched the video Blood Money, presented by the Grand Knight.

8. INSURANCE AGENT'S REPORT

Scott Shaw introduced himself to the Council as our new insurance agent. He is originally from El Paso, and moved some time ago to Garland. He went to Bishop Lynch, then to UTA on a football scholarship, worked for about 30 years in the food industry, then became an insurance agent about three years ago. He has been a Knight for some time. He noted that one is never too old for insurance: they are about protecting Knights and their families. He also represents St. Joseph's, and his home council is in McKinney. His home is in Van Alstyne.

9. GRAND KNIGHTS'S REPORT CONTINUED

The Grand Knight passed out flyers about a charitable garage sale to be held by the Fourth Degree.
